

MARCH

Helping people of all abilities, ages and backgrounds get the support they need, when they need it.

Community Social Services Awareness Month

Residential, employment support and day programs for people with developmental disabilities • services for families and youth in need • quality child care • assistance for victims of violence and people with substance abuse issues • services for children with special needs • counselling and support for immigrant families • support for women escaping abusive relationships • specialized services for aboriginal people • assistance for people dealing with physical and emotional abuse, job loss, life skill and decision-making problems ...
and more.

www.communitysocialservicesmatter.ca