

PROCLAMATION

Community Social Services Awareness Month

WHEREAS

community social services are vital to the quality of life of all British Columbians and include services to families and children; people with disabilities; people and families dealing with substance abuse; people in community justice services, including correction services and victim assistance programs; women and their families in transition houses or sexual assault centres; aboriginal peoples; individuals involved in community projects and employment training programs; as well as child care, multicultural, settlement and immigrant services; and more; and the availability of these supportive services helps improve the quality of life for everyone, while making our communities stronger and more stable; and that greater recognition and understanding of the critical role these services play in our communities is needed to ensure their continued availability and improvement and where awareness and support for these services begins at the local level;

NOW THEREFORE I,

Darrell Mussatto, Mayor of the City of North Vancouver, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 2011 as Community Social Services Awareness Month.

So proclaimed on Monday, February 28, 2011

Mayor Darrell R. Mussatto
